

Birds of North America Online

DoD PIF Access Codes

Steps to Activate your Subscription:

1. Go to <http://bna.birds.cornell.edu>
2. Click the Individual Subscriptions button
3. Fill out the form, choosing a username and password. A copy will be emailed to you.
4. In the last space, enter your activation code and click Continue.
5. Login using the username & password you just created.
6. Clicking on My Account will tell you when your subscription starts and ends and will allow you to customize your name and other information if you like.

If you go to Sign In and cannot remember your password, there is a "Forgot Password?" link on the page. As long as you can remember either your email or username, then the site will automatically email you the password. If not, you can email bna@cornell.edu for assistance retrieving the information.
